Just to add, this is the only debug output i can get from netbeans, on connecting to the server the below occurs, obviously this is incorrect, i'm beginning to think this just isnt possible yet with JavaFX :(paused 0.0ms[]

Lessons Learned in Migrating from Swing to JavaFX

Before starting the Migration phase, we searched the web for insights into the migration process and the likely problems we could run into. This investigation lead to a collection of articles, forum posts, videos, and reference documentation. Unfortunately, at that stage the technical advice proved either too specific (focusing on detailed use cases) or too general (discussing broad issues).
