How To Build A Swing Set | DoItYourself.com

Building a wooden swing set for your children is a great way to provide them with a fun activity while giving your backyard a beautiful handcrafted element. Step 1 Purchase the Materials. To build a swing set you will need wood. Pressure treated wood is the best option because it will hold up to the elements more effectively than untreated wood. You will need approximately 48 feet of 2 x 6 wood and around 20 feet of 2 x 4. It is recommended that you purchase 5 to 10 percent more of each.
