We used Harcourt for first grade, and though at times I found it painfully dull, it pretty much kept it short and to the point and it had good map skills and other activities. I do like to know we're covering what the other kids in the district cover, and I like Harcourt materials in general, so we ordered grade 2. My first impression is pretty good-keeping the boring facts to a minimum and

Harcourt Horizons: World History - Cathy Duffy

Harcourt Horizons is definitely non-sectarian, yet it does include some respectful coverage of religions including a discussion about studies regarding religious freedom in recent years. In World History , it does begin with discussion of modern humans living in eastern and southern Africa more than 100,000 years ago.
