Top 9 Lenses for Real Estate Photography (Updated for 2019)

For real estate photography, it's rare that you'd ever need to use an aperture as low or lower than f/2.8, unless you're taking a lot of shots in low light. As a general rule, the wider the maximum aperture is, the more expensive the lens. Thankfully, for real estate photography this means you don't have to spend thousands on an expensive wide aperture lens. Generally around f/5.6 and

Best camera for real estate photography - Choose Your Variant

Usually photographers avoid choosing this variant as the most effective and best camera for real estate photography, because of its thin design. In vain, this model has zoom for effective shooting and 4X lens of 28 mm. In combination with a big three-inch monitor, it is a rather suitable variant for real estate photographers. And look at this price? Will you find something lower?
